Middle School Teacher (Grades 6–8)

St. Thomas More Academy – Middletown, Maryland

St. Thomas More Academy is seeking a full-time Middle School Teacher for the 2026–2027 academic year. The successful candidate will join a faculty of friends committed to assisting parents in forming their children into saints through the Catholic Liberal Arts Tradition within an authentic Catholic culture. Teaching assignments will be based on school needs and candidate strengths and may include literature, history, theology, Latin, natural sciences, mathematics, or related disciplines. The Middle School Teacher will teach within the classical tradition, presenting mathematics and the natural sciences as intelligible and ordered reflections of God's creation while incorporating primary sources and Socratic discussion where appropriate. The teacher will foster intellectual wonder, disciplined study, moral virtue, and spiritual maturity. The ideal candidate understands the unity of faith and reason and serves as a joyful, faithful witness to Catholic life.

A bachelor's degree is required, preferably in the Liberal Arts or a relevant discipline. Teaching experience is preferred, especially in classical education, though formation will be provided for mission-aligned candidates. Applicants must be practicing Catholics in good standing and willing to take an Oath of Fidelity to the Magisterium. St. Thomas More Academy is an independent PK–8 NAPCIS-accredited Catholic classical school in historic Middletown, Maryland. Experiencing renewed growth, we seek teachers with zeal for souls who desire to help form virtuous, flourishing disciples of Christ.

To apply, please email a resume with letter of interest to Dr. Dan Lesho at leshod@stmamd.org.